

Leadership Training

---

29 to 31 March 2021

Dennis Zaire, Senior Programme Manager

On 29-31 March 2021, the Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung (KAS) in collaboration with the office of the Governor of Omaheke region, Hon Pio Nganate, conducted a leadership training for regional decision makers. 37 participants benefitted.

At the occasion, the Hon Governor remarked, "we thank KAS for facilitating this training. It will develop the capacity and skills base of our leaders to identify and respond to the need of the people on the ground, as well as enhance delivery of services based on needs."

The training ended on a positive note.

Workshop participants during some training sessions.